FACULTY OF HOSPITALITY AND TOURISM MANAGEMENT INTERNSHIP PROGRAM

INTRODUCTION

The purpose of this handbook is to provide students with the process for registering for the appropriate internship experiences, facilitate completing the appropriate forms, and describe the internship experience (e.g., assignments) expectations.

Internship is the combination of both theory and practice. Specified academic tasks must be completed while the student is involved in real-life experiences. The combination of theory and practice reflects the focus of the tourism and hospitality program towards:

- A. Consulting with professionals associated with tourism agency and hotel management and operations.
- B. Providing experiential learning opportunities for students to apply foundational knowledge and techniques; demonstrate the ability to design, implement, and evaluate services and experiences; and display entry-level management/administrative knowledge and skills.
- C. Allowing students the opportunity to demonstrate the potential to succeed as professionals at supervisory or higher levels.
- D. Maintaining a quality, accredited program which meets program and learning outcomes.

The internship handbook component of the hospitality and tourism programs is a critical aspect of the professional preparation of the students. The handbook component consists of an internship (BITM1321, BHM1244, CA1311, RM1308, IE1301) as a capstone experience.

Addressing Correspondence

Until a University supervisor is assigned, internship students should address their mail, fax cover sheets, and report coversheets to:

Faculty of Hospitality and Tourism Management
Internship Coordinator
Macau University of Science and Technology
Avenida Wai Long
Taipa, Macau

Once a University supervisor has been assigned, it is the responsibility of students to address mail DIRECTLY to their supervisor. Failure to correctly address correspondence may result in missing or delayed papers.

Communicating with University Supervisor

Students should obtain permission to use the various communication channels (phone, email, voice mail, WECHAT, and mail) from their site. Students should not assume that they can just fax or call or use the email system. Please note that all internship students must adhere to the agency's policy in terms of assignments and required evaluation.

Evaluation of Supervisor

Must be completed by each student and forwarded with other forms at the end of the term for the internship experience. Students should indicate their assigned supervisor on the form.

Email Attachment

It is a student's responsibility to send the required documents by email attachment to the University supervisor. The University supervisor is asked to acknowledge the receipt of the email attachments in a timely fashion.

Liability Insurance

Students are responsible for arranging for their own professional liability insurance if needed.

BITM1321/IE1301/BHM1244/CA1311/RM1308 - INTERNSHIP

Purpose of the Internship Program

The internship serves several purposes. It furthers students' professional education under the guidance of agency and university supervisors and allows them to apply theory to actual situations. Additionally, the experience provides for intensive self-evaluation as students develop a professional attitude toward their chosen career and improve the ability to successfully handle a wide variety of people and situations. Furthermore, the internship program provides agencies with quality personnel to supplement staff and allows these agencies an opportunity to become involved in the preparation of future professionals. Students will want to save copies of papers and especially the major project. Quality papers and projects are important sources of evidence for a student's career portfolio.

Description of the Internship Program

The internship is a required course designed to give FHTM majors a full-time work experience and must be successfully completed prior to graduation. The internship is the capstone experience of a FHTM student's academic career. Students need to be fully involved in the experience, entirely committed, and fully responsible for completion of the requirements in a timely and professional manner. Failure to do so may result in a student being removed from the experience, receiving an incomplete, being required to complete additional weeks of experiences, or simply having to repeat the entire term.

Students who have successfully completed the course prerequisites are eligible to be registered for an internship. The internship must be at one site and maximum of 1,000 total hours for BFBM students and maximum of 800 total hours for BITM and BHM students.

Objectives of the Internship Program

The internship should provide the following opportunities:

- A. Learn first-hand what it means to be a full-time Hospitality and Tourism professional.
- B. Observe, practice, and apply theory to specific situations by comparing, evaluating, adapting, and adopting what has been seen in practice to what has been previously experienced in theory.
- C. Engage in intensive self- evaluation by looking at strengths and limitations in light of practical work situations.
- D. Transition from undergraduate student to professional worker.
- E. Reinforce and expand upon an understanding of a variety of programming and leadership techniques and their theoretical backgrounds.
- F. Develop leadership and skills in the creative use of community resources for a more meaningful tourism program.
- G. Develop better communication skills, both oral and written.
- H. Gain basic knowledge of the organization and administration of the various types of tourism and hospitality entities.
- I. Understand principles of interdepartmental relationships.
- J. Acquire the ability to work with people individually or in groups.

Internship Application Procedure and Flowchart

For the course code BITM1321 / IE1301 / BHM1244/ CA1311 / RM1308 (INTERSHIP)

1. Students will be registered by the COES system in fourth academic year. CA1311 and RM1308 will be registered in third academic year;
2. Students fill out the internship confirmation form after accepting an internship offer;
3. Program Director reviews and approves the internship confirmation form;
4. Upon the internship confirmation form is approved, administrative office inputs the information to the spreadsheet;
5. During the add/drop period, Program Director checks the spreadsheet in order to find the students who haven't submitted the forms or the forms are incomplete, and determine whether their course need to be dropped or not.
6. Students must complete the internship confirmation form; otherwise their course will be dropped during the add/drop period

Agency Selection

Selection of an agency as a field site is based on the following procedures and criteria. Agencies not meeting all requirements may discuss those differences with the internship Program Director.

BITM 1321/IE1301 (Internship and Report) allows students to work at all departments in hotels, food and beverage operations, travel agencies, tourism-related areas, MICE industry, casinos or entertainment. For other agency, the pre-approval from the internship Program Director is required.

BHM1244 (Advanced Internship and Report) requires students to work at all departments in hotels and/or food and beverage operations. For other agency, the pre-approval from the internship Program Director is required.

CA1311 (Culinary Arts Internship and Reports) requires students to complete the internship in kitchen for food and beverage operation.

RM 1308 (Restaurant Management Advanced Internship and Report) suggests that students work in the field of restaurant industry as well as food and beverage operation. For other agency, the pre-approval from the internship Program Director is required.

A. Procedures for Selection

1. For approval, agencies must indicate that a contribution to professional hospitality and tourism education is important to the agency and that there is management approval for using the agency as an internship site.
2. Agencies should submit the following information:
 - a. Description of facilities including program brochures
 - b. Job descriptions and application forms for student interns
 - c. Indication of any stipends available (i.e. housing, meals, travel allowances)

B. Criteria for Selection

1. Describe in the application the organization's professional philosophy in terms of quality, programs and services.

2. Have staff qualified through both education and experience to supervise student interns.
3. Have written administrative procedures including adequate financial support, personnel policies, and a staff development program.
4. Provides a tourism/hospitality service for its clients.

Site Placement Selection

It is the student's responsibility to adhere to the term due dates. It is the responsibility of the student to secure an internship site and to schedule an interview or telephone conversation to discuss the details of the position with the potential agency supervisor. Approval as an internship site is based on the level of the student's internship responsibilities, the length of work time at each responsibility, and the qualification as tourism organization, hotels or hospitality and tourism functions.

Responsibilities of the Agency

- A. Interview and select student interns in conjunction with the internship Program Director.
- B. If necessary, submit an application to be approved as an internship site.
- C. Supervise and aid the student in their professional growth through constructive and objective criticism, and encourage self-evaluation by the intern.
- D. Consider the intern as part of the regular staff and encourage high work standards.
- E. Prepare staff for the arrival of the intern. Let personnel know they will need to assist in the professional development of the intern.
- F. Develop a work scheme with the student for areas that should be covered (budgeting, personnel management, fiscal control, maintenance, evaluations and meetings with student).
- G. Complete midterm and final evaluations.
- H. Include the student in regular staff meetings.
- J. Designate work assignments to benefit the student and the agency.
- K. Conduct an exit interview with the student and provide any recommendations for improvement

Responsibilities of the University Supervisor

- A. Represent the University in all official arrangements with cooperating agencies in the conduct of the on or off-campus internship program.
- B. Supervise arrangements for and give final approval of all internship assignments.
- C. Host two workshops for the student interns and explain the internship procedure in details. At least, one face-to-face meeting is required.
- D. Meet with the student intern and agency supervisor according to location. In general, 50% of the internship sites should be visited.
- E. Evaluate student intern reports and discuss these reports with the student as necessary. Respond to student intern's enquiries and assignment submission in a timely fashion.
- F. Complete midterm and final intern evaluations.
- G. Evaluate the student intern's experience in cooperation with the agency supervisor. It is the responsibility of the university supervisor to assign the intern's final grade.
- H. Serve as a resource person for both the agency supervisor and the student.
- I. Study, evaluate, and exchange ideas directed toward improvement of the internship program

- J. Work closely with the internship program director in case of emergency for the student intern.

- f) Extra credit step is to assess the costs of the weaknesses.

And

- g) Evaluate opportunities for improvement.

In the narrative include the following: a) analyze the potential crisis or fail points by describing each fail point in a narrative that corresponds with the fail point identifiers indicated on the flowchart, b) Identify possible management solutions to each potential fail point to improve the service quality.

- 2) Administrative Analysis of Internship Agency: 5-10 double spaced, typed pages. Critically evaluate a specific administrative function of the agency and outline a plan to improve its effectiveness and produce service quality. Consider such functions to evaluate as management-flow charts, personnel development such as hiring, training, and employee evaluation, financing, volunteers, budgeting and public relations.

4. Major Project - The major project is to be chosen based on consultation with the agency supervisor. The project should in some way benefit the internship agency. Choose ONE of the major projects below.

- 1) Marketing Analysis. 5-10 double spaced, typed pages. Use the traditional P mix (e.g., price, product, promotion, distribution) in which the student is located and critically analyze an administrative function such as provision of service quality, in-depth analysis on the delivery of customer service, marketing plan, and facility layout. Then outline a plan to improve its effectiveness. This 4-5-page report should also include, but is not limited to, the internship agency name, interviewee, title, address, mission of organization, questions you asked the answer (briefly), marketing methods for each department of the agency, and overall marketing strategies of internship agency. Include brochures that assist in explaining the analysis of the agency.
- 2) Event Plan (execution may or may not be possible before the due date): 5-10 double spaced, typed pages. This paper will allow the student to evaluate a special event program for which he/she is totally responsible. Enclose all pertinent materials. The paper should include the following components:
 - a) Goals of the organization in hosting the event and event objectives.
 - b) Themes of the event and why the theme was selected.
 - c) The benefits the participants will receive from the event.
 - d) Profile of the event participants.
 - e) Describe the forecasting tools for the number of participants.
 - f) Describe the event plan through Frames that address each stage of the actual event and address each of the following six program elements in each frame (e.g., interacting people, physical setting, leisure objects, rules, relationships, and animation).

- g) Staffing requirements for each frame with instructions and directions for the staff to follow for each frame.
 - h) Detailed Budget including all costs and revenues. If possible, list the supplies and equipment for each frame.
 - i) Emergency Plan in case of bad weather or problems with the facility.
 - j) Scheduling Tasks - basic timeline for organizing the program.
 - k) Registration Procedures - Describe the forms of registration for the program.
 - l) Risk Management Concerns - prioritize the highest three (3) risks associated with the entire program and explain the risk management strategies.
 - m) Promotion Plan - target market and news release and program flyer.
 - n) An evaluation form for participants.
 - o) Self-analysis or with the intern supervisor, describe the strengths and weaknesses of the event. (The final project is an event plan that could be handed to any event planner without any experience and he/she could organize the event).
- 3) SWOT (strengths, weaknesses, opportunities and threats) analysis 5-10 double spaced, typed pages.
- a) Step 1: Describe the mission, goals and service concept of an organization
 - b) Step 2: Provide detailed description and analysis with supporting evidence for each of the strengths, weaknesses, opportunities, and threats. Provide detailed description and analysis with supporting evidence for each of the strengths, weaknesses, opportunities
 - i. Describe the internal attributes to the organization that refers to the strengths and weaknesses that are internal elements that may impact the organization's performance. This analysis is relative to the competition so identify the competing organizations. Analyze the organizational structure, marketing plan, funding, service experience, etc.
 - ii. Describe the external forces that may impact the success of the destination or organization which are divided into opportunities and threats. These external forces are common to other organizations with a similar service. (Examples: each would need further explanation, research, and description) are technology, government regulations, changes in market, customers' preferences, globalization attributes, and competition.) Further assess opportunities based on benefits to the organization and threats based on impact to the organization.

- c) Step 3: Based on the analysis and written narrative of SWOT, develop a plan to capitalize on the opportunities and strengths and address the threats and weaknesses.
- 4) Analysis of service development and service quality of the internship organization. 5-10 double spaced, typed pages. Student's internship organization will be analyzed in each of the following areas (student can select one area of his/her organization to analyze).
- a) Explain the organization's service concept. The service concept is a picture or statement that encapsulates the nature of the service business and captures the value, form and function, experience, and outcomes associated with the service concept. Describe each of the following components of the service concept:
 - i. Form and function: The overall shape of the service, how it is created, and how it operates.
 - ii. Experience: The experience as perceived by the customers.
 - iii. Value: Why are the customers willing to pay money for this service?
 - iv. Outcomes: The benefits the service concept provides the customer and the organization. Please use specific details of the organization to describe each component.
 - b) Analyze the Technical Components of the service such as the tangibles that compose quality and functional aspects such as service personnel and atmosphere.
 - i. Describe the organization's important technical attributes and functional aspects of the customer's satisfaction.
 - ii. Utilize any of the organization's evaluation information (if available).
 - c) Describe the organizations procedures to evaluate service quality such as the use of comments cards, and surveys of quality (SERVQUAL including) or interviews. Include examples if possible.
 - d) What are the strengths and weaknesses of the organization's service quality based on the service concept, technical and function features, and evaluation procedures for service quality?
 - e) Based on the analysis of service quality and guest satisfaction, how would the student improve quality or sustain quality at the internship organization? Please indicate specific areas of the organization where the resources should be used to improve quality.

A quality project is important for a high grade in the student's internship. In addition, a quality project will provide evidence of the student's work for future employers. Students should save a copy of their project to add to their portfolio.

5. Evaluations. These should include:
 - 1) Midterm evaluation
 - 2) Final evaluation
6. Internship Site Final Evaluation Form
7. Arrange Site Visit with University supervisor (if located within China which is the approximate distance that University supervisors may travel)
8. Submission of Assignments. Assignments should be submitted electronically via email or MOODLE to the internship teacher. Documents requiring signatures must be scanned and submitted. Papers may be submitted as attachments in PDF format. Individual supervisors may require different submission methods. All papers and the project must be typed or computer generated. All written work will be held to the same standards as if on campus.
9. Biweekly Contact. Students are required to maintain regular contact with their University internship supervisor. Phone calls or WECHAT to the supervisor must be made every 10-14 days. Individual supervisors may require different contact methods

Internship Grading

Students are required to hand in all course work on the due dates designated by the University supervisor. Papers and reports are evaluated by the University supervisor.
